

A'tukwen Communication

Clifford Paul

A'tukwen Communication

MI'KMAQ NATION

A'tukwen Communication

MI'KMAQ NATION

A'tukwen Communication

MI'KMAQ NATION

Mi'kmaq Nation

Unama'ki – The Land of the Fog

A'tukwen Communication

A'tukwen ♦ Communication

A'tukwen Communication

A'tukwen Communication

A'tukwen Communication

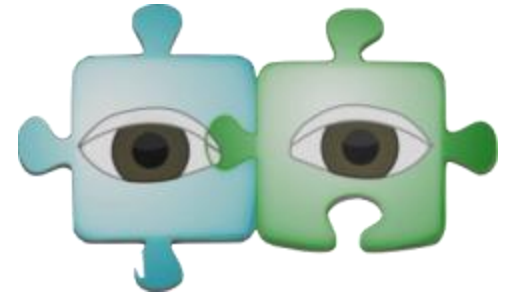

A'tukwen ♦ Communication

TWO-EYED SEEING

... a Guiding Principle
for transcultural education & collaboration

LEARN ... to see from one eye with the best in the Indigenous ways of knowing, and from the other eye with the best in the Western (or mainstream) ways of knowing

... and LEARN to use both these eyes together for the benefit of all.

(words of Mi'kmaw Elder Albert Marshall)

ETUAPTUMUK – TWO-EYED SEEING

The older people will turn to Niskamij in the morning ... when you acknowledge the sun (or the moon), you are acknowledging Creator. (Murdena Marshall)

Oqwatnuk
... wisdom

Wjipnuk
... newness

Tkisnuk
... spiritual
connectiveness

Pkite'snuk
... fullness

Msít No'kmaq — “All my Relations”

Skite'kmujuawti

Meaning:

The Spirit Path.

The Spirit Path of our Ancestors.

We are the Stars.

We are the Heavens.

MSIT NO'KMAQ – All My Relations

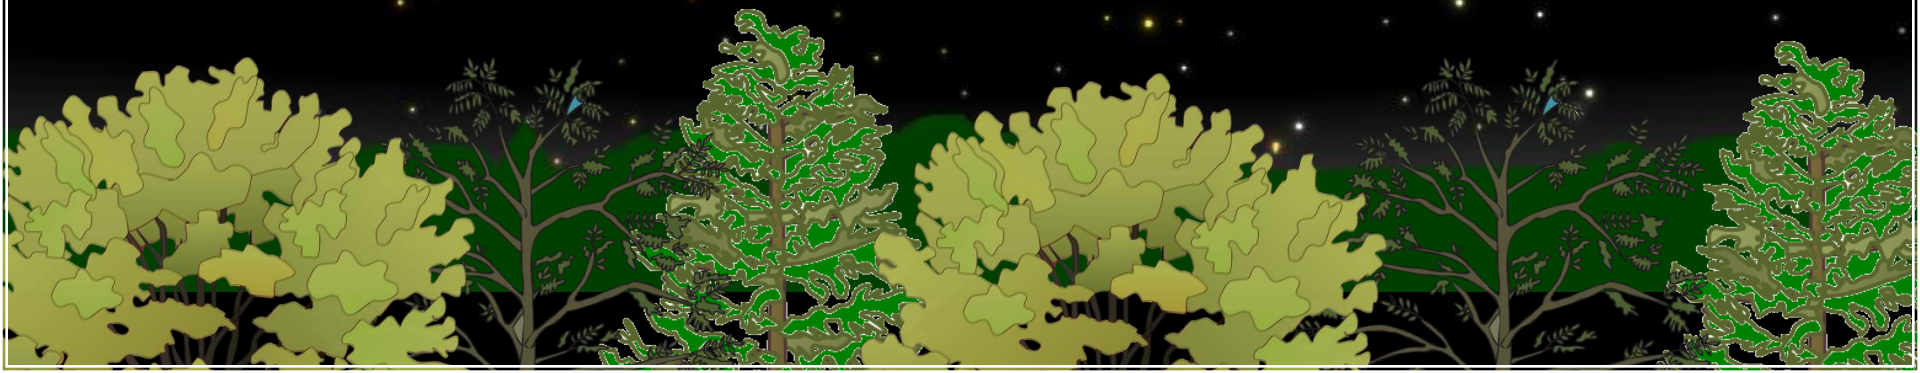

Muin and the Seven Bird Hunters

The Stars in this Story

The Stars in this Story

North Sky

Tatapn

Klo'qwejk ila'lukupjik

“the stars know their places” (pattern)
... in the story

North Sky

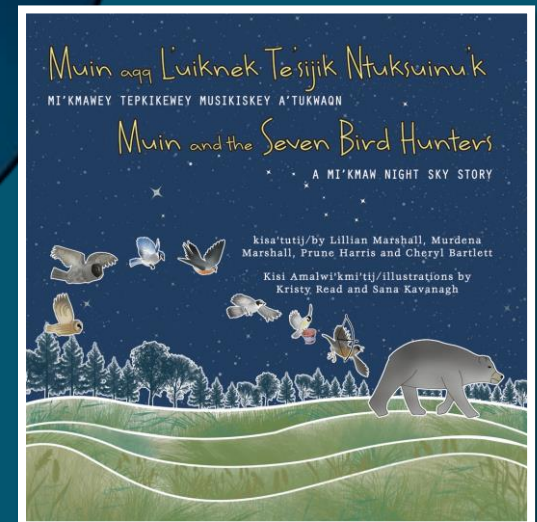

Kesik
(Winter)

Siwkw
(Spring)

Tatapn

Toqwa'q
(Fall)

Nipk
(Summer)

As Elders, we realize KNOWLEDGE IS SPIRIT.

It is a Gift passed on through many people. We must pass it on.

*words of
Elder Albert Marshall*

Artist Gerald Gloade; Millbrook First Nation

We Elders need
to share our
understandings of
Traditional Knowledge
to be healthy.

In sharing, I am trying to live up to
the responsibility of
why I was given
that knowledge.

words of Elder Albert Marshall

Artist Gerald Gloade; Millbrook First Nation

SACRED TEACHINGS

The world around us is filled with everything we need if we are quiet and know how to listen, we will hear the heartbeat, the rhythm, the whispered song

AARONPAQUETTE.NET

